

Lots of people go mad in January. Not as many as in May, of course. Nor June. But January is your third most common month for madness.

– Karen Joy Fowler

